New Delhi, the 16th January 1965

S.R.O. 47.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of collection and recovery of Trade and Profession Tax and its refund in Dehra Dun Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Dehra Dun, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924) and in supersession of the bye-laws published with the notifications of the Government of United Provinces, Municipal Department No. 4546/XI-19-C-25, dated 12th December, 1932 and of the Government of India in the Ministry of Defence S.R.O. No. 192, dated 7th July 1959, are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF COLLECTION AND RECOVERY OF TRADE AND PROFESSION TAX AND ITS REFUND IN DEHRA DUN CANTONMENT.

1. On or before the 1st April of each year, the Board shall cause to be prepared in form 'A' appended to these bye-laws, an assessment list giving the names, addresses and trade or profession of persons liable to pay the trade and profession tax and the amount of tax payable by them.
2. When such list has been prepared, the Board shall give public notice thereof and any person shall be at liberty to inspect it and to take extracts therefrom free of charge.
3. Any objection to an entry in the aforesaid list shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer within fifteen days of the publication of the notice referred to in bye-law 2, stating the grounds on which the objection is based and supported by documentary evidence, if any.
4. The Board shall cause all such objections to be considered and the Board shall make such amendments to the said list as may be found necessary. A public notice to the effect that the list has been duly finalised shall thereafter be published. This list shall be in force upto the 31st March of the year next following and shall be conclusive evidence of the liability of persons mentioned therein to pay the respective amounts of tax indicated against their names.

5. Soon after the publication of the notice referred to in bye-law 4, the Executive Officer shall cause to be presented to each person included in the aforesaid list, a bill for the tax payable by him, in the manner laid down in section 254 of the Cantonments Act, 1924.

6. The amounts shown in the bills issued under these bye-laws shall be paid at the office of the Board within thirty days of the presentation thereof.

7. The Board may at any subsequent time, for due and sufficient cause, amend the aforesaid list and the provisions of bye-laws 2, 3 and 4 shall apply in respect of the list as so amended as they apply in respect of the original list:

Provided that if by the amendment the name of a new assessee or place of business is inserted in, or an existing name or place of business is omitted from, such list, a notice to that effect shall be served on the person or persons affected thereby.

8. Every person commencing or ceasing to carry on a trade, profession or calling for which tax is payable shall, within 15 days of such commencement or cessation, give intimation of the fact to the Executive Officer. Every person who is liable to pay tax and who changes the name of his firm or the nature of his trade, profession or calling or place of business shall likewise give intimation of such change to the Executive Officer within fifteen days of the change.

9. No refund or remission of tax, on the ground that the trade, profession, or calling was carried on for a portion of the assessment year only, shall become payable unless the person liable to pay the tax has reported that fact in writing to the Executive Officer, within fifteen days of the closure or commencement as the case may be, of such trade, profession or calling during that year.

10. The Cantonment Board shall also cause to be prepared in Form 'B' appended to these bye-laws, a demand and collection register in which the names of all persons liable to pay the tax shall be entered, and shall cause such register to be corrected from time to time.

11. A contravention of the provisions of bye-law 8 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees only.
